SUBJECT Arab Higher Committee Fund-Raising Letter			DATE 14 Jan 1953
PERTINENT INFORMATION <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. "Attached is a form letter submitted by Pontar which is signed by "Amil Ghuri, Charge D'Affaires of the Arab Higher Committee for Palestine in Beirut." 2. According to Teasdale the tract stated that the Arab Higher Committee must redouble its efforts for the refugees and that, therefore, it has become "urgently necessary" to collect funds from the Palestinians and other loyal Arabs, in order to enable the committee to carry out its work properly. Therefore, says the letter, the Grand LEBTI has authorized the Beirut committee to collect funds locally. A special committee of refugees in Lebanon has been formed for the purpose of increasing AHC revenues and directing expenditures of these revenues. This finance committee, says the letter, has taken its offices in the AHC building in Beirut."
